Summer Term

It's now the summer term and so children may be dressing a little lighter than over the winter.

Please remember that children should wear low heeled, plain black shoes. They must be plain black with no other markings, flat or nearly flat and suitable for your child to run about in the playground.

Open-toed sandals should not be worn, even in the Summer Term. For PE lessons, children should have a separate pair of plimsolls/trainers.

As it is the summer term and the sun may come out, please could you ensure that your child has a hat in school for playtimes. Children are not permitted to bring sun cream to school under any circumstances.

Hundreds of small children + bottles of sun cream = one huge mess!

Clubs

We will be holding clubs sign-up after school on Thursday. Clubs are listed overleaf. You will notice there are less clubs than usual. The KS2 production of "Joseph" involves a lot of staff. They will be very busy with Joseph so will have less time for other clubs.

Attendance grades

The eagle eyed among you may have spotted that the colours for the attendance have changed (see left). In our normal assessments, we use green for expected and blue for exceeding. In the attendance report, we have had green as the top grade. To make things clearer, we have switched it round on the newsletter. Green is good, blue is better!

Clubs

Monday:	No clubs
Tuesday:	Joseph rehearsal (3.15pm - 4.15pm)
Wednesday:	Film Club (end time varies) KS2 football (3.15pm - 4.30pm)
Thursday:	No clubs
Friday:	KS1 multi-skills (3.15pm - 4.30pm) Carnival Club ((3.15pm - 4.15pm)

All clubs are subject to change. Come along to sign-up after school on Thursday. There may even be a couple more clubs on offer!

The Queen's Birthday

On Wednesday, we will be celebrating the upcoming 90th Birthday of Queen Elizabeth by wearing red, white & blue. Children don't need an elaborate costume (our uniform is already blue & white!)

Clothing for the day needs to be patriotic, but comfortable for children to take part in lessons. During the day, the children will also be designing a birthday card for the Queen. There will be prizes (one per Key Stage) of "The Birthday Crown" by Davide Cali.

Tuesday 5th - Thursday 7th July 2016

It's only 12 weeks until the JS2 production of Joseph. If your child is inKS2, you will hear a lot about this over the next term!

All pupils are involved, either as principal cast or as chorus. Principal cast will practice after school every Tuesday. There will also be occasional lunchtime and afternoon rehearsals.

Performances are at: 1.45pm on Tuesday 5th July
6.00pm om Tuesday 5th July
6.00pm on Thursday 7th July

We need all children in KS2 to keep practicing the songs. Every child needs to know the words to every song! All of the songs are available on YouTube and Spotify. Sing along around the house!

Tickets will be on sale later this term, from the office.
